It may sound unbelievable after more than 50 years and three generations, but when I speak with someone about having Mossman's Catering fulfill and surpass their food service needs for their unique event, I still get a little thrill!

I started the old-fashioned way by washing dishes (even though the apron my grandfather gave me was taller than I was). I watched in amazement as my grandfather fed hundreds of people in the downtown convention center often in less than 20 minutes. I was even more wide-eyed when I saw my dad feed 7,000 people one day in a town over 100 miles from here. Mossman's Catering has also introduced me to many enjoyable private parties as well. I grew up around plenty of good food that was seasoned to cause a fantastic, positive reaction.

Rick Mossman

Mossman's Catering loves to serve good, honest, home-style food for a great value. Together our cooks have over 250 years experience. Our service is the best, friendliest and most efficient.

Please allow Mossman's Catering to be someone you trust with your event and your special guests. Thank you for putting a thrill in my day by asking for Mossman's Catering!

I believe you will be pleased with a couple of our policies that begin your relationship of trust with Mossman's Catering.

You can alter the number of people that you guarantee up until 72 hours before your event –This is unheard of.

At Mossman's Catering and Coffee Shops we serve over 7,000 people a week. We have fresh food available 7 days a week. If something unforeseen happens (and every once in a great while it does) you can lower or raise the guarantee of the number of people attending your event. Mossman's Catering will be there for you!

We don't run out of food – I get made fun of a lot for sending too much food. It used to bother me, but I just can't change. So, I brag about it. I want my customers to enjoy the feeling I had when I was growing up with delicious food and plenty of it. Mossman's Catering backs up our good food with a guarantee that we can serve 5% more guests than you tell us are coming.

Whether it's buffet, family style, or plated...
Mossman's has you covered!
